

EMILE A. LACHENY

347-515-4551 ♦ chynelaslan@gmail.com

EDUCATION

St. Edward's University, Austin, TX
BFA in Theater Arts, 2017
Stella Adler Professional Studio of Acting, New York NY
Diploma, 2021

AWARDS

Second place for a horror screenplay	Cannes writing Festival
Finalist best horror screenplay	13Horror.com
Second place for a horror screenplay	Feel the reel international Film Festival
Official Selection	Atlanta Film Festival
Semi-Finalist	Lone wolf International Film Festival

BEST SHORT PLAY

ST. EDWARD'S 24H PLAY FESTIVAL

SELECTED PLAYS AND SCREENPLAYS – FULL LENGTH

One Night/Screenplay	Five awards for best horror screenplay. Sold to Wavelength Ent.
The Guild/Screenplay
Dreams in the making/Screenplay	Self-produced and directed
E.G.G./Play	Produced at the NYC Theatre Festival
Fire Punch/Tv Pilot
I wanna slit my wrists/ Play

SELECTED PLAYS AND SCREENPLAYS – SHORT/ ONE ACTS

Access Denied/ Short Play	Produced at the Chain Theatre in NYC
The Wright Brothers	Production with the Transit troupe Theatre

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

The Story Wranglers	Paramount Department of education
Teaching artists	Creative Action (Austin, Texas)

"Emile is talented, professional and committed. His script greatly affected me from a creative standpoint and purchasing it was a smooth and prompt process. He is dedicated to the craft of creating stories and is able to create impact on paper, without depending on production to lift the story. His respect for quality is evident in every step of his process. I highly recommend working with him in any aspect of storytelling through the medium of film."

Caroline Dillingham
C.E.O of wavelength entertainment.

Emile Aslan Lacheny is a Franco-Turk writer and actor located in New York City. Born and raised in Paris. He then went to the U.S to pursue his art. He first obtained a BFA at St. Edward's University in Austin, Texas. Then moved to New York. He has won awards for his writing and sold his first screenplay to be produced by a streaming service. On his free time, his biggest passion is consuming all forms of art, especially all things Dr. Who and DC comics. (He really loves those)